Bronze Era Wins Australian Champions

FAVOURITES OUSTED IN SATURDAY'S BIG RACE

Tiny Star Wins Subs' Classic By A Neck

(BY "MORNING DEW")

The outstanding of Saturday's racing was the surprise win by Bronze Era of the Australian Champions. The pony led from start to finish and by accounting for both Able Amazon and Woodland Stag, two roaring favourites, paid his supporters $284 for a win.

Tiny Star with Mr. Frost up, won the Subscription Griffin's Champions by a neck from Classic Hall in a thrilling finish in which Surprise and Cavalcade shared. Gold Currency won the first section "B" Class Spring Handicap to pay over $114 for a win. The pony was nominated by the "Daily Press" for a place.

Chow Fan Wins A Close Race

The programme opened with a field of thirteen starters in which Copper Idol (Mr. Y. S. Chang) was a strong favourite with Sarabande (Mr. Heard) next in demand. Racing Spirit set the pace here and as the field entered the straight was a couple of lengths to the good in front of Copper Idol and Sarabande. These two, however, passed the leader at the distance post and, up a good finish, Mr. Chang on Copper Idol won by a length. Racing Spirit stayed long enough to take third place.

GOOD FINISH

The second "N" Desperandum was interesting for the good finish it provided. Red Fox showed the way, but at the Rock, Mr. Ip Kwi Ying on In Good Time came along with a good burst of speed to head the field. He led into the straight and for a moment looked like winning when Mr. Heard on Hell for Leather came up on the near side of him and Chow Fan (Mr. Harriman) came up on the far side. Chow Fan put up the better finish of the two and won by a length, while the same distance separated second and third.

OAK BAY

The Griffins Spring Handicap "A" Class proved to be very interesting and the support was very evenly distributed. Prima Donna and Lemberg (both unplaced) carried more tickets than the others, but it was obvious during the race, that both were finding top weight (168 pounds) too much for them. After a scramble for position lasting over a quarter mile, Oak Bay got in front and remained there throughout, though at no stage of the race was he comfortably ahead. Bay View put up a good challenge at the finish, but had to go under by three quarters of a length while half a length further behind, King's Fancy, was having a great race with Glad Eyes.

FLEMINGTON PLATE

There were eleven starters in the Flemington Plate, but only two ponies were in the race right through. When the gate shot up, Alacrity was seen in the van with Nell Gwyn next. Mr. Frost kept his mount in front all the way, followed by Nell Gwyn, and it was not until the distance post was reached that Australian Boy joined the issue. It was not long before Alacrity drew in front and Nell Gwyn, putting on an extra spurt, shook off Australian Boy. The winner was a hot favourite and carried almost half the tickets put on the race.

SUBS' CLASSIC

Mr. Frost took Tiny Star to the post in the Subs' champions and the public made him second favourite to Classic Hall (ridden by Mr. T. L. Wong). Chesterfield set a long lead, but was out of the race before it was half over. Panama, who set out early on to catch Chesterfield, was beaten by the time the field reached the five furlong post. At the Rock, Tiny Star on the rail side with Surprise on the outside were running neck and neck and behind them were Cavalcade and Classic Hall, within a length. The rest of the field was close up, but it was noticed that they were gradually losing ground. Tiny Star led into the straight with Surprise on the outside of him and it looked as if the two would share the issue, when Classic Hall came along with a big rush to join the leaders. Surprise was shaken off by Tiny Star for a while and Classic Hall looked a real danger a few yards from home, until Mr. Frost managed to get a little better response from his mount towards the end to win by a neck. Surprise was a neck behind Classic Hall, having come along again in the last few strides.

FIRST BIG UPSET

The first big upset came along when Gold Currency won the first section of the Griffins' Spring Handicap "B" Class. The public spread their support evenly, showing a slight preference for the mounts of Mr. Heard and Mr. Marshall. Mr. Heard's pony, William Osler, who had to be held at the start, picked his way through the field and led into the straight, but the earlier effort cost him the race and he faded rapidly out. Ebony Idol, Great Hall and Gold Currency were prominent at the distance post when Tummel also joined the issue. These four fought out a thrilling finish in which Gold Currency won, with Great Hall second and Ebony Idol and Tummel sharing third place.

AUSTRALIAN CHAMPIONS

Bronze Era, jumping away to a flying start covered the first half mile at a terrific pace in the Australian Champions, with the result that he was a good twenty lengths ahead of the field at the six furlong post. Mr. Y. S. Chang on Able Amazon was running second with the rest close up to him and Woodland Stag, bringing up the rear. Woodland Stag could make no impression on the leaders and was beaten out of a place. Meanwhile Able Amazon was pushed by Chang in an effort to reduce the gap and he caught up till he was within three lengths of the leader, who meantime had been running comfortably. Into the straight, Mr. Deitz pushed Bronze Era once again and he came along to win comfortably, while Able Amazon had a great deal of difficulty trying to keep second place as Bag Tor was putting up a strong challenge.

FAIR VIEW

Fair View won the second section of the "B" Class Griffins' Spring Handicap from Glorious Sun, with Limestone taking third place. Fair View, due probably to the fact that Mr. T. L. Wong was riding was made second favourite. There was nothing in the race until the straight was reached, when Zero, who had been early sent in front, by Mr. Harriman, failed to stay the pace. Several ponies closed in on him and in a close finish, Fair View won.

KING'S JUSTICE

The feature of the eighth race was the defeat of Badko, who carrying top weight, decided to stick close to the rails. The pony found the going too difficult and was never in the picture. King's Justice and Navy Hall were leading throughout, until a hundred yards from home when the former drew ahead to win by a length. Blue Star was third and Mayflower fourth.

WONG'S WIN

Jungle Jim won the last race in the best finish of the day in which King's Parade, Mike and Wakefield shared. Mike was prominent throughout the race and led into the straight. At one time it looked as though he would do the trick, but King's Parade came along and wrested the lead from him, but only for a moment as Jungle Jim passed the leader at the mile post, and came along to win handsomely by a length.

"THE CHIEF"

Never Did A Sensible Thing

"The silliest man in America" comes on Thursday to the Queen's in "The Chief," heralded as one of the big laugh epics of the year. Ed Wynn, of course, is the star. Millions of radio fans who have wondered what happened to Wynn's broadcasts these past few months, will know the answer when they see "The Chief," which was suggested by the character he made famous on the networks. He's been in Hollywood making the picture for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, whose lovely Dorothy Mackall, whose beauty has graced many film successes, appears opposite Wynn. Others in the cast are Charles "Chief" Sale, beloved character funder, William (Stage) Boyd, Effie Ellsler, who was a Broadway star a generation ago, and O. Henry Gordon. "The Chief" is the story of a simple Bowers boy of the early nineties, son of a heroic fireman who gave his life in a great holocaust. The boy is swept to local fame by a couple of conniving politicians. How he gets there, and the vamping of the alluring Miss Mackall, is the story. Packed with typical Wynn humor, "The Chief" is said to set new laughing standards for America. Wynn boasts that he has never said a sensible thing on the stage, and his screen appearance is no exception.

"NO MAN OF HER OWN"

Gable's Latest Success

"No Man of Her Own," Clark Gable's first starring role since "Red Dust," and "Strange Interlude," is now showing at the Alhambra Theatre. Gable is supported by Carole Lombard and Dorothy Mackall, who play contrasting romantic roles, as well as George Barbier and Grant Mitchell. Wesley Ruggles, of "Cimarron" fame, directed. The star plays the role of a suave, sophisticated gambler, who, not content to trust to luck, has the high-stake poker games in which he participates so that only one man can win—Clark Gable. But, after he has gone to a small town to avoid the too-persistent efforts of a detective who has set himself on his trail, and the too-amorous attentions of Miss Mackall, a former sweetheart, he gambles against luck alone, and loses. For on her date, he flips a coin with Miss Lombard, with "tails" meaning marriage. Tails turns up. His new wife with him, he returns to the city, to find events closing around him. Miss Mackall pesters him, the detective hounds him, and most surprising of all, from his own point of view, he finds himself in love with his wife. Under these circumstances, he takes bold and daring measures, with results which bring the picture to a highly dramatic climax.

JEAN HARLOW AT HER BEST

A "Bombshell" At The Queen's

"Bombshell," which is now at the Queen's Theatre, is the first picture in which Jean Harlow and Lee Tracy have been co-starred by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The picture is based on a play by Caroline Frank and Mack Crane and was adapted to the screen by Jules Furthman and John Lee Mahin. As Lola Burns, an exotic and sensational film star, Miss Harlow is reported to have one of the most effective and entertaining characterizations of her career, a role described as being even more striking than her performances in "Red Dust," "Hold Your Man" and "Dinner at Eight."

Lee Tracy, one of the most dynamic personalities in pictures, plays opposite Miss Harlow as her bombastic publicity director, who is responsible for many of the difficulties in which she finds herself with the studio executives, her family, her fan public and her many admirers. Victor Fleming, who directed Miss Harlow and Clark Gable in "Red Dust," also directed "Bombshell." In its filming, rather than transforming to the screen an exact portrayal of picture people and movie life, he is said to have injected into it a wholesome amount of humor and laugh-provoking situations. Fleming also directed "The White Sister," co-starring Helen Hayes and Clark Gable, and has contributed a number of notable pictures to photoplay history.

Marlene Dietrich Scores Again

Seldom, if ever, has any film Hollywood has produced, represented such a union of the pictorial, histrionic, literary and musical fields as Marlene Dietrich's latest Paramount picture, "The Song of Songs," now showing at the King's Theatre. Any film starring Miss Dietrich would be assured of a big headstart in pictorial quality to begin with. The flaxen-haired German star, who launched the revolutionary trousers for women style mode, never looked so lovely as she does in the fluttering feminine clothes of twenty years ago. Directed by Rouben Mamoulian, who made Chevalier's "Love Me To-night," "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and other highly praised pictures, Miss Dietrich is said to give an outstanding dramatic performance. This picture, incidentally, is the first Dietrich film with a director other than her discoverer, Josef von Sternberg. From a histrionic standpoint, the picture is exceptional for the performance of the supporting cast—Brian Aherne, romantic newcomer to pictures, from the legitimate stage, Lionel Atwill, Alison Skipworth, Hardie Albright and Helen Freeman. Beside the effective camera work always found in a Mamoulian production, "The Song of Songs" presents the famous statue of Miss Dietrich executed especially for the film by S. Cartaino Scarpitta, noted sculptor. The picture was adapted from Hermann Sudermann's literary classic. The musical score includes selections from Wagner, Bach, Tchaikovsky, Schubert, Beethoven and other famous composers as well as a "torch" song sung by Miss Dietrich. Marlene Dietrich And An Old Favourite The Song of Songs showing at the King's Theatre features Marlene Dietrich in the dramatic role of an orphan pleasant girl who, through the death of her father, is forced to go and live with a very skilful aunt acted by Alison Skipworth. Marlene falls in love with a sculptor played by Brian Aherne. Lionel Atwill plays the part of the elderly baron who is also in love with the girl and he forces Aherne to give her up, which he does. But Aherne eventually finds her and regains her love for him. Others in the cast are Hardie Albright and Helen Freeman. Marlene Dietrich's fans should not miss this picture.

PASSED IN TEETH OF OPPOSITION

Washington, Mar. 3. After an amendment, in conference with the Senate, the Fletcher-Steagall Bill permitting the continuance of the use of Government bonds as collateral security for Federal reserve notes was passed in the House of Representatives in the teeth of opposition by the Democratic "insurgents." The Senate approved the measure as now passed and it has gone to President Roosevelt for signature.—Reuter.

LEIPZIG FAIR

Increased Support This Year

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).]

Leipzig, March 3. This year's national campaign against unemployment by which it is confidently hoped that at least 2,000,000 workers now idle will be re-absorbed in productive economic work during the summer, will be inaugurated on Sunday when Goebbels opens the Leipzig fair held here regularly for over 700 years past.

The thoroughness of the preparations made, which had been going on for over six months have proved that in many branches 50 per cent. more firms are exhibiting than last year while comparison based on space booked show an even greater confidence in the future by business men.

For instance, the machine tool makers hired last year 5,400 square meters of space. This year it is over 9,000 square meters. While the increase in the entire engineering section has increased from 24 to 35 thousand square meters. In many branches the entire available exhibition space is sold out.

Italy has doubled the amount of space taken last year. Over 8,000 tons of samples for display have already arrived. Over 50,000 foreign buyers have booked room in Leipzig for the duration of the fair. Four hundred special trains converge on Leipzig on Sunday bringing buyers and exhibitors. This time the organisers of the fair have concentrated propaganda on countries where German goods meet the least obstacles in

BELGIAN KING'S DEATH

Nation Moved By Britain's Sympathy

London, March 2.

The Belgian Ambassador in London in a letter to Sir John Simon, expressed on behalf of the Belgian Government a warm appreciation of the expression of sympathy evoked in Great Britain by the tragic death of His Majesty Albert, King of the Belgians.

The letter proceeds: "In conveying the above, the Belgian Minister for Foreign Affairs, M. Hymans, begs me to add that he is in common with all other Belgians deeply moved by the message which you broadcast on the evening of the tragic event as well as by the striking manner in which the British Cabinet manifested their sympathy with our Royal family and the whole of the Belgian people."—British Wireless.

entering the market, these including South America, Spain, Turkey, Hungary, Switzerland, Scandinavia, Poland and to some extent England. While the primary object of the fair is to sell goods for the benefit of the business of those who display, educational possibilities for the nation's welfare are being exploited on a scale not hitherto dreamed of. The German manufacturers are being urged to re-equip their factories with most modern machinery so as to reduce all production costs to a minimum. By this combination of efforts is confidently hoped that scourge of unemployment will end by the end of this year, well on its way to complete elimination. — Transocean Wire.

Chinese Gets Six Weeks Jail.

Before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy, on Saturday morning, an unemployed Chinese named Ng Sheung, aged 26 years, was charged for stealing a radiator cap from a private motor-car No. 563, which was parked in Gascoigne Road, shortly after 10.30 p.m. last Friday evening.

A Chinese detective, who prosecuted, told the Court that while he was on duty near the corner of Gascoigne Road at about 10.30 p.m. last Friday evening, he saw the defendant walking out from the street to cross the road. His suspicious behaviour had made him (the detective) search the man's pockets, and as a result of the searching, a radiator cap was found in his possession.

The defendant, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to jail for a period of six weeks hard labour.

Chau Wong, unemployed, was sentenced to six months' hard labour by Mr. Hamilton, at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning on a charge of having stolen $7 from Chan Ah-tong, a poultry dealer, at Happy Valley on February 27.

DIVORCE REFORM BILL

Call For Government Review

Mr. H. Knight (Nottingham, S. Nat. Lab.) moved the second reading of the Matrimonial Causes Bill. He said that a review of the divorce law of this country should be undertaken by a responsible Government. (Cheers.) Unfortunately, however, no responsible Government was in sight, so far as he could see, which would undertake that task. Such was the mischief which had resulted from the neglect of divorce law reform that he had undertaken to introduce this measure in the hope that the Government might be persuaded to respond to the general opinion, not only in the House of Commons, but in the country, that this matter should be brought under close discussion. In 1912 a Royal Commission sat for two years and considered the question, and finally by a majority of nine to three recommended Parliament to carry out the proposals contained in this Bill. Since then the proposals had been approved on three occasions by the House of Lords.

The Bill proposed that petitions for divorce should be on the following grounds: That the respondent had committed adultery; that the respondent had deserted the petitioner for at least three years; that the respondent had treated the petitioner with cruelty since the marriage; that the respondent was incurably insane and had been a certified lunatic for at least five years immediately preceding the petition; that the respondent was an incurable habitual drunkard, and for three years had been separated from the petitioner in consequence of habitual drunkenness; and finally that the respondent was undergoing imprisonment under a commuted death sentence. The Bill provided that the Courts must give the closest possible scrutiny to the facts relied upon in the petition before granting divorce. There was danger in allowing further delay before reviewing the matrimonial laws. It was said that delay in bringing about the necessary changes had resulted in the marriage laws being ignored, and that the redress which was not available within the law was now being taken beyond the law. (Hear, hear.)

As to the opposition to the Bill, while the House was ready at all times to receive advice on changes in the law from any quarter, it was not prepared to receive dictation. (Hear, hear.) There was no authority outside which should presume to intervene between the House and the discharge of its duty. The duty of changing the law rested in that House untrammelled, and they were not going to accept dictation as to that duty from any quarter, however distinguished and however devout. They were not asking any person to testify to the proposals in the Bill who did not wish to do so.

The defendant, in admitting the charge, stated that he brought the weapon from Fukien, and he was unaware of the Hong Kong regulations. He also asked his Worship to remand the case for one or two days, so that he could find some money to pay the fine.

The case was then remanded until this morning.

OPIMUM DIVAN RAIDED

Principal Tenant Fined

A Chinese named Wong Sang appeared before Mr. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday morning, charged with keeping an opium divan and being in possession of four maces of prepared opium.

It was stated by the prosecuting Officer that the defendant was the principal tenant of No. 13, Ngai Chui Wai Road, Kowloon City, and during the raids, several opium smokers were smoking in the premises.

The defendant pleaded guilty and a fine of $157 or eight weeks' hard labour was imposed. The prepared opium was ordered to be confiscated.

Charged with having insufficient life-belts on the ferry-launch Sun Chau, Chen Kam coxswain, appeared before Mr. T.W.H. Hoggood at the Marine Court on Saturday. Li Yau-tsan, manager of the Hong Kong and Territories Ferry-Launch Co., was also summoned for allowing the offence. The hearing was adjourned until 2.30 p.m. on Wednesday.

"MISERABLE MARRIAGES"

Sir A. Wilson (Hitchin, U.) seconded. The broad proposals of the Bill, he said, were advocated by Lord Lyndhurst as far back as 1857 and were supported by no small number of Bishops even in those days. There was a substantial majority of the Bishops on the bench to-day who would give the Bill their unquestioned support. The circulars, with which the House had been bombarded by the Mothers' Union in no way represented the convictions or the opinions of the 500,000 women therein mentioned. The proposals of the Bill were old-fashioned in the sense that they were put forward by a very strong all-party Royal Commission in 1912. Only three members, two of whom were bachelors, dissented. They had the support as recently as last October of the Law Society. He could not believe that a vote to send the Bill to a Committee would be received with anything but public approval and relief. (Hear, hear.)

There was no idea on the part of the promoters of making divorce easier; rather did they wish to make marriage more holy, easier, stronger, and healthier, by making it possible for the State to terminate unions the maintenance of which made the sacrament of marriage an abiding blasphemy and living in marriage a living hell. There were hundreds and thousands of homes made miserable, from the fact that the very basis of the union had long ago disappeared. They had to get out of their minds the idea that divorce was a crime, the existence of which should be regarded statistically and made the subject of public comment. Divorce merely meant that some particular union had become impossible and had been terminated. It was the entry for both parties, in the enormous majority of cases, into a happier, more fruitful life. It was the end of one frustrated life and the beginning of another life. Social workers and judges had expressed their disgust at the working of the existing law, which made the practice of "faking" adultery in order to terminate a union an almost inevitable feature of divorce proceedings. It was perfectly clear that in the Courts of this country no deduction could be drawn from the proceedings as to which was the guilty party. It would be well if those who claimed that guilty and innocent parties should be differentiated had greater experience of the proceedings in Courts of law.

He was convinced that there was a great body of opinion in this country, not vocal but very real, which attached greater importance to the spirit of our Lord than to interpretations placed in successive ages upon His particular words and phrases which might or might not be recorded in their correct sense. Freedom ought to be given to women and men who were labouring under the cruellest disability; the children of those unions ought to be borne in mind that in Scotland and in Australia this legislation had in fact worked.

THE BILL "TALKED OUT"

Dr. O'Donovan (Mile End, U.) moved the rejection of the Bill. He said that the Book of Common Prayer was an operative, powerful,

NEW EXTENSION TO CHINESE Y.M.C.A.

Foundation Stone Laid

Another step towards fulfilling the long felt need of more dormitories and an auditorium for the Chinese Y.M.C.A. Kowloon was taken on Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Lam Chi-fung, President of the Association, laid the Foundation Stone in the midst of a distinguished gathering.

Among those present were Mr. Watt Lok-hing (Chairman), Mr. T. B. Wilson (President of the Rotary Club), Mr. J. L. MacPherson (Advisory General Secretary), and Messrs. Wm. C. H. Chen (Associate General Secretary), Andrew Cheong, S. W. Ko, Ho Yan-tak, the Rev. Tsang Ki-ngok, Messrs. L. N. Chau and Richard Lee (Architects), M. K. Kwong (Contractor), and a large number of friends and members.

In his address the Chairman, Mr. Watt Lok-hing, speaking in Chinese, said he was very proud, that in an era of depression, the Directors of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. were able to finance the erection of the new extension. He also expressed his appreciation to the members for their co-operation with the Directors in their work and further, appealed for financial aid in this venture.

Mr. P. C. Kwok, recording Secretary of the Board of Directors, then read the report which drew attention to the fact that, since the completion of the present building in 1929, the membership and activities of the Association had considerably increased.

Dormitories were now too small to meet the demand made upon them and they now felt the growing need for an auditorium and a reading room.

Before laying the foundation stone, a memorial box containing current newspapers, coins and records, was placed under the stone. Mr. Lam Chi-fung was then presented with a silver trowel by Mr. N. Chau, on behalf of the architects, and then laid the foundation stone which was inscribed as follows: "Not to be ministered unto but to minister. This foundation stone was laid by Mr. Lam Chi-fung, Esq., 3rd March, 1934."

After a prayer by the Rev. Tsang Ki-ngok, a speech of thanks by the Chairman and a blessing by the former, the ceremony was brought to a close.

The new building which is of concrete, is of four storeys. The ground floor will be occupied by the new auditorium, the other floors being devoted to dormitory accommodation. The new rooms will be slightly larger and better furnished than the present ones.

and solemn jurisdiction for the greater part of this country. The assertion which had been made that the opposition to the Bill was dictated from outside bodies was offensive, tendentious, and misleading. If it were the case, as had been said, that "faked" adultery was common in the cases in the divorce courts, that was not a reason for entrusting the Courts with more power, but for restricting their power.

With reference to the question of desertion after three years, he considered that desertion was one of the most easily arranged causes of collusive divorce. "Faked" desertion was very easily arranged. Moreover, many quick-tempered people left their spouses to a fit of temper, and separated for three years or more. If three years' desertion were to be accepted as sufficient ground for divorce, there was no reason why two years' or even one year's desertion should not be accepted as sufficient.

With regard to the question of cruelty, it was a term difficult to define. What was regarded as cruelty in one section of society was not necessarily so regarded in another, and if the word was left to the interpretation of the Judges it was almost incapable of being mental cruelty would come to be included under this head. There was in the Press to-day too much consideration of sex life and doctors were plagued by people under the impression that they were suffering from marital disabilities of hardness. In the mind of a sex-hungry spouse any act of his or her partner might be interpreted as mental cruelty.

It would be a blow to the cure and an added torture to an insane person if this Bill became law. Owing to the action of the Chancellor of the Exchequer in regard to the brewing industry, incurable drunkards were now hard to find. He did not think it would pay anyone to open to-day a new infirmary's home. (Laughter.) He was a medical man would find it very difficult to give sworn evidence that any drunkard was incurable.

At one minute before 4 o'clock Mr. Knight moved the closure, but the motion was not accepted by the Speaker, and Dr. O'Donovan was still speaking when, at 4 o'clock, the debate was adjourned. The House stood adjourned immediately afterwards.

SHIPPING MOVEMENTS AT BRITISH PORTS

Increase In Foreign Trade
Arrivals

London, Feb. 28.
In regard to the shipping movements at British ports, the Board of Trade Journal records that foreign trade arrivals with cargo in January, 1934 showed an increase in tonnage of 6.2 per cent over that of January, 1933, while departures with cargo were 2.5 per cent greater. Arrivals in ballast were 1.5 per cent less, departures 8.5 per cent more. Consisting trade was more active all round, increase ranging from 9.9 to 11.4 per cent.—British Wireless.

COAL FROM PETROL

Successful Tests By The Air Force

London, Feb. 28.
Only small quantities of petrol extracted from coal were used by the Royal Air Force for test and experiment prior to last year when one of the Home Defence Squadron flew solely on such fuel. The Under Secretary for Air, Sir Philip Sassoon, stated in the House of Commons that in view of the very satisfactory results of this trial, a contract had now been placed to cover the requirements of seven squadrons.—British Wireless.

CHUNG NAN COLLEGE

Dr. Tso's Good Wishes

The second annual prize day of Chung Nan College was held at King's Theatre yesterday morning. The Hon. Dr. S. W. Tso, O.B.E., LL.D., distributing the prizes.

A very successful year was reported by the headmaster, Mr. Chung after which Dr. Tso in a short speech, congratulated the staff and pupils of the college on their success.

After the distribution of the prizes, the large gathering was entertained to a delightful concert.

HON. DR. TSO.

After distributing the prizes, The Hon. Dr. Tso said:—Mr. Chung, Ladies and Gentlemen: I am very pleased indeed to have the opportunity of coming here today to distribute the prizes to the successful students of the Chung Nan College, and I thank Mr. Chung, the Headmaster, for conferring on me this honour.

The Chung Nan College, I understand, came to life only a couple of years ago, being founded by Mr. Chung and his associates, all graduates of the Hong Kong University.

A Noble Profession

Teaching is a noble profession, but carries with it a very heavy responsibility. A school is a training ground for the young. Parents, by sending their children to a school, entrust them to the care of its masters, with a view to their being trained.

Tribute to Staff.

We have heard the report of the school for the year 1933, which has just been read by the Headmaster. I feel sure that every one here will agree with me that the College has done well in such a short period of its existence. The successes achieved by the students in the Hongkong University examinations speak volumes of the splendid work done both by the masters and the students, and it also appears that the other students of the College are progressing equally well. I am sure all the students here will be a credit to the College and I wish them the best of luck. I offer you, Mr. Chung and your staff, my heartiest congratulations on your success and my best wishes for the future. (Applause).

DR. KAGAWA'S LECTURE

Co-operation Among Nations

A lecture entitled "Co-operative Movement Among Nations Is the Basis of Peace," was last night given to an appreciative audience by Dr. T. Kagawa, the famous Japanese Internationalist and Christian leader, at St. John's Cathedral Hall.

Dr. Arthur Woo presided in the absence of Bishop Hall, while others present included Sir Henry Pollock, Kt. K.C. and Lady Pollock, and Mr. J. L. Macpherson, Advisory Secretary to the Y.M.C.A.

Dr. Kagawa gave a very fine description of the "Co-operative Movement" during the course of which he touched upon Soviet Russia and its method of solving the world's plight.

Dr. Kagawa said the Communists were trying to solve the problem of world poverty, but their leaders were making the mistake of viewing economy and matter, two of the principal parts of the Co-operative Movement, as an industrial subject only. They should have realized, he stated, that the whole subject was closely bound up by religion.

At the conclusion of the lecture, Dr. Woo proposed a vote of thanks to Dr. Kagawa, which was heartily endorsed by the gathering.

TENDERS ACCEPTED

The following names of successful tenderers are notified in the "Gazette":

FROM THE GAZETTE

Appointments And Notifications

His Excellency the Governor has appointed Mr. D. Kelvin-Stark to be an Assistant to the Secretary for Chinese Affairs.

His Excellency the Governor has appointed Dr. T. W. Ware to act as Medical Officer of Health.

It is notified that Mr. Edwin Taylor resumed duties as Colonial Treasurer, Collector of Stamp Revenue, Assessor of Rates, and Commissioner to carry out the provisions of the Estate Duty Ordinance, 1915, on 22nd February.

His Excellency the Governor has appointed Captain P. S. Cannon, M.A., Army Educational Corps, to be a Member of the Board of Education for a further period of two years.

It is notified that at the expiration of three months the name of the Rothmans, Limited will, unless cause is shown to the contrary, be struck off the register and the company will be dissolved.

The name of Mr. G. F. Walker has been added to the list of authorised auditors.

The names of The United Land Investment Co. Ltd. and the Chee Wo Hong Co. Ltd. have been struck off the register.

Tenders are being invited for the construction of Pottinger Peak North and South and Mount Colinson East catchwaters and contingent works.

WATER FOR FLUSHING

$1 Per 1,000 Gallons

The "Gazette" published a new regulation made under the Waterworks Ordinance which provides that where any of the water supplied by meter to any premises outside the Peak District, by special permission of the Water Authority is or may be used for the purposes of flushing any water closet, the price of all water charged for as excess consumption in respect of such premises will be at the rate of one dollar per one thousand gallons.

SWATOW NOTES

Talkies To Be Started Soon

Sawtow, Feb. 27. We have now come to the rainy season once more, there being very heavy downpours recently. The farmers are pleased in view of preparations for the next rice crop. The last one has been very successful and satisfactory, as a result of which local rice was cheap compared to former prices. Bangkok and Northern rice continue to be imported regularly.

The doors of the Grand Theatre are still closed, they having been sealed up some months ago for outstanding debts, and there are no prospects of an early reopening.

The former Chen Kwong Theatre has been taken over by another management which changed the name to Capitol. Many repairs have been made and detailed alterations undertaken in the premises. For the time being only Chinese silent pictures are screened but talkies will be put on later.

Old Kwangtung 20 cent pieces, unused for a long time, are being circulated again with no discount. Formerly they had a depreciated value and were later substituted by newer coins. The military department have issued orders prohibiting arrest to those who are not disposed to accept such coins as legal tender.

A few money-exchange shops have been closed up over to China New Year and are now reorganizing. Many of these moneychangers have reaped huge profits in past years, and curiously enough the banknotes of these shops are safer to keep overnight than those actually issued by native banks.

The local Wine Tax Bureau has changed hands. This time a Hakka syndicate took over the monopoly. I hear. All wine shops are busy taking off the old stamp duty from the wine bottles for a refund of the amount of duty already paid to, and from the old concern.

From all parts of up-country the distressing news is received of pillaging, banditry etc. Many cases of kidnapping are also reported to have occurred. The inhabitants are living in an upset condition, having to live in a continual state of fear.

An impromptu dance was held at the Customs Club last Saturday night when an enjoyable time was enjoyed by all present. Being the usual card night, bridge and mahjong were played up till a late hour.

LESSON SERMON

First Church Of Christ, Scientist—Hong Kong

"Christ Jesus" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which was read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 4th.

The Text was: "Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid which is Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 3:11).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell that ye have, and give, ams; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you" (Luke 12:32-34, 17:20, 21).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "When speaking of God's children, not the children of men Jesus said: 'The kingdom of God is within you.' That is, Truth and Love reign in the man showing that man in God's image is unfallen and eternal. Jesus held in Science the perfect man, who appeared to him where sinning mortal man appears to mortals. In this perfect man the Saviour saw God's own likeness, and this correct view of man healed the sick" (476-477).

UNIMPAIRED PROSPERITY

No question is put, perhaps, more frequently than this: Why, when nearly every country in the world is complaining of poverty, should France produce an impression of unimpaired prosperity? For France, despite ministerial crises and adverse commercial conditions, undoubtedly looks prosperous. There is unemployment, but it is not conspicuous. There is some stagnation in trade, but it does not affect the temper of the French. In the French capital one is struck by the brisk movement, the brightly lit and well-arranged shop windows, the crowded emporiums, the multiplicity of the cinemas which are always filled. The more luxurious establishments have suffered both from the crisis and the heavy taxation, but all the moderately priced places express themselves well satisfied. The signs are indeed unmistakable. They are written on the faces of the people. Nobody seems to be denying himself any reasonable pleasure. And yet it is frequently said that Paris depends on the foreign visitor. There has been a serious decline in what is called the tourist trade for reasons which are obvious, but Paris as a whole does not look much the worse. So it is in other French towns. There are local difficulties, but generally France pursues its way placid and undisturbed. The farmers are not unduly disturbed by problems of overproduction. They believe that the price-fixing policy of the Government will benefit them. The market places of the provincial towns are alive with gay gossiping throngs.

If one looks at statistics there is certainly a decline in exchanges with other countries and a deficit which, on paper, is serious enough. But the average citizen is quite unaffected. The unemployment figures tell their tale; in strong contrast with the millions who are out of work in neighbouring nations, there are, all in all, not more than a quarter of a million registered as unemployed in France. That may be regarded as an almost inevitable percentage due to normal fluctuations. Besides, though foreign labour has diminished as compared with the peak years, when there were probably nearly three million foreign workers in France, there are still great numbers of foreigners who fit into the social scheme, and who arouse no resentment. What, then, is the reason of this apparent prosperity? Fundamentally, France can hardly be considered to be as rich as, for example, Great Britain; but there is a distribution of property which makes the bourgeois and the peasant—that is the bulk of the nation—relatively independent of the vicissitudes of world trade.

Despite the upheavals of recent years it is yet true that France is almost equally divided among those who, in some way or other, live on the land; and those who are engaged in industry. Though there has been a decline in the population of the countryside and the lure of the towns has been felt, the process has not been carried as far as is sometimes represented. France retains its equilibrium. In times like this, when industrial enterprises are touched, the town worker who has kept some relations with the soil is welcomed by his cousin or his brother who has been faithful to the land. A place can always be found for him, for there is never an excess of labour in the countryside. Moreover, France is composed of small holders and of small bourgeois. Everybody possesses something. The humble labourer usually owns their house, which has sometimes existed for generations, and they have their own piece of ground on which to raise potatoes and salads; they have chickens and a pig. Poverty is rare, and when it occurs is regarded as a disgrace. Again, though France has developed her industrial system and is not without huge concerns, the Frenchman who is essentially bourgeois has been singularly recalcitrant to the modern conceptions of big business. His ideal is to have a business which he can look after himself. If he does not make immense profits he runs few risks. He is economical and contrives to put something by for a rainy day. Often such a business has been handed down from father to son. Nor, when the Frenchman has secured a small competence, does

OBITUARY

Old Resident Passes Away

It is with much regret that we have to record the death of Mr. J. H. Raptis, which occurred at his residence on Friday night. The late Mr. Raptis was 74 years of age, and was one of the oldest residents in the Colony. He joined the Hong Kong and Whampoa Dock Co., Ltd. in 1887 as an engineer, and three years later entered the Government service as a turnkey at Victoria Gaol. Shortly afterwards he became general overseer at the Taikoo Refinery from which position he retired in 1927 after some 30 years' service. He leaves a widow, two sons, Mr. A. J. Raptis of the British Bicycle Co., Mr. L. J. Raptis, and a daughter Miss Terasa Raptis, to whom the deepest sympathy is extended.

The funeral took place at the Catholic cemetery on Saturday, the Rev. Father Ngai conducted the Service. The chief mourners were his widow and children, and there was a large number of relatives present. Among the many wreaths were those from Mr. R. C. Webb, Manager for South China of the Dunlop Rubber Company and staff; the staff of the Far Eastern and Extension Telegraph Company; Messrs. British American Tobacco Company, the Staff of the Dairy Farm Ltd., the Lam Long Dramatic Society, Dr. H. K. Tsun and many others.

SERGEANT R. PRESLIN

The death occurred at the Military Hospital on Friday from septicaemia of Sergeant R. Preslin of the Royal Army Pay Corps. Deceased was the best rifle shot in the Corps and was very well liked.

The funeral took place at the Protestant Cemetery on Friday, the Rev. Lewis Bryan conducting the burial service.

Among those present at the funeral were Col. W. J. H. Bilderbeck, O.C. R.A.P.C.; all other ranks of the R.A.P.C.; representatives of the R.A.S.C., R.A.M.C., Royal Engineers, Royal Artillery and South Wales Borderers.

Wreaths were sent by: "G.O.C. Maj.-Gen. O. C. Barrett." "All ranks, R.A.P.C." "H.Q. R.A. Sergeants Mess." Col. and Mrs. Bilderbeck, the Old Comrades Association, R.A.P.C.; Members of the Garrison, Sergeants Mess; "N.C.O.'s, R.A.M.C.; Junior N.C.O.'s and Men, R.A.O.G.; All Ranks, South Wales Borderers; Major and Mr. Gedgo, R.A.P.C.; Wives of Members of the R.A.P.C.; and Messrs. RETROCESSION OF KUPEIKOW

Ceremony Marked By Jubilation

Peiping, March 4.

The ceremony of returning Kupeikow to China was carried out at 11.30 this morning with the hoisting of the National flag and firing of crackers.

Mr. Yin Yu Kong represented China, while the Japanese military officers Col. Matsui and Major-General Sasakura were also present.

Yin Yu Kong's office and the Chinese police station were opened (the Chinese post office was opened last month), but the so-called Manchukuo police station remains at Nantienmen, South of the Great Wall, and the Japanese, still have a number of troops in the Pass.—Reuter.

he hesitate to retire even at an early age and make way for his successor of the younger generation.

Then it should not be forgotten that besides the great rentier class who live on their savings there is a considerable class of pensioned persons still young, without means sufficient to permit extravagance, but sufficient for careful expenditure to keep them in comfort.

And, besides, there are the functionaries—small officials who, it is acknowledged, number nearly a million, and if other categories were included, in the communes and departments as well as in the state, would probably number many more. They are not highly paid, but neither are they overtaxed, and they have achieved the Frenchman's ideal of security. It is possible to criticize the system as a burden on the community; but up to the present it has worked well and assures a competence to a goodly proportion of the people.

It will, therefore, be obvious that, given the French temperament, and given the social organization which has been developed, balancing agriculture against industry, and keeping both for the most part on a small scale, there is such an even distribution of wealth that economic shocks which upset other countries leave the French less shaken than their neighbours.

If Gossip We Must

By "Prudence"

The last day of Race Week is the youngsters' opportunity—and full advantage was taken of the fact this year—for there were almost as many children as grown-ups in the Members' Enclosure last Saturday. Chinese children in particular, seem to get a great thrill out of the races and come right up to the rails, balancing precariously to crane over and gaze down the track. English children seemed less interested in the actual running, but are keen little gamblers, and spell their way down the lists to find a pony whose name appeals,—after which they eagerly place their bets (or half-bets) on the chosen favourite, in the most serious manner possible.

We noticed Mrs. F. D. Tracy, looking very handsome in black and emerald green, with her boy and girl, (Helen and Jimmy) and two of their young friends, Mrs. Bowes-Smith's Billy, and Mrs. Ralston's was the fashionable colour on Saturday.

Mrs. Sverre Berg looked prettier than ever in black with a gold-flecked scarlet jumper. Mrs. Grossman struck an original note in pale gray with a cute little red cap which suited her dark hair. Mrs. D. J. Lewis was distinguished in dark crimson. Mrs. Ritchie wore black and scarlet. Miss Betty Johnson had a rather unusual tomato-red and Mrs. L. C. F. Bellamy was in cherry-red with silver buttons on a neat little beige waistcoat, and Lady Furnival wore a red hat with her long fur coat. Miss Mackie wore a marvellous coat of gray Persian lamb when she led in Tunnel, who apparently "drew" for third place (though to all the onlookers it seemed he was dead, by a nostril and a couple of eyelashes, at the very least!).

Mrs. Mackie was all in brown, and our sympathies are with the owner.

Mrs. Crist looked terribly pleased when she led in Bronze Era—but some people who had lost on him, earlier in the week, felt rather disgruntled.

Taking it on the whole there have been some real thrills and not a few surprises, and (despite the bad weather) most of us will have some very pleasant memories of Race Week.

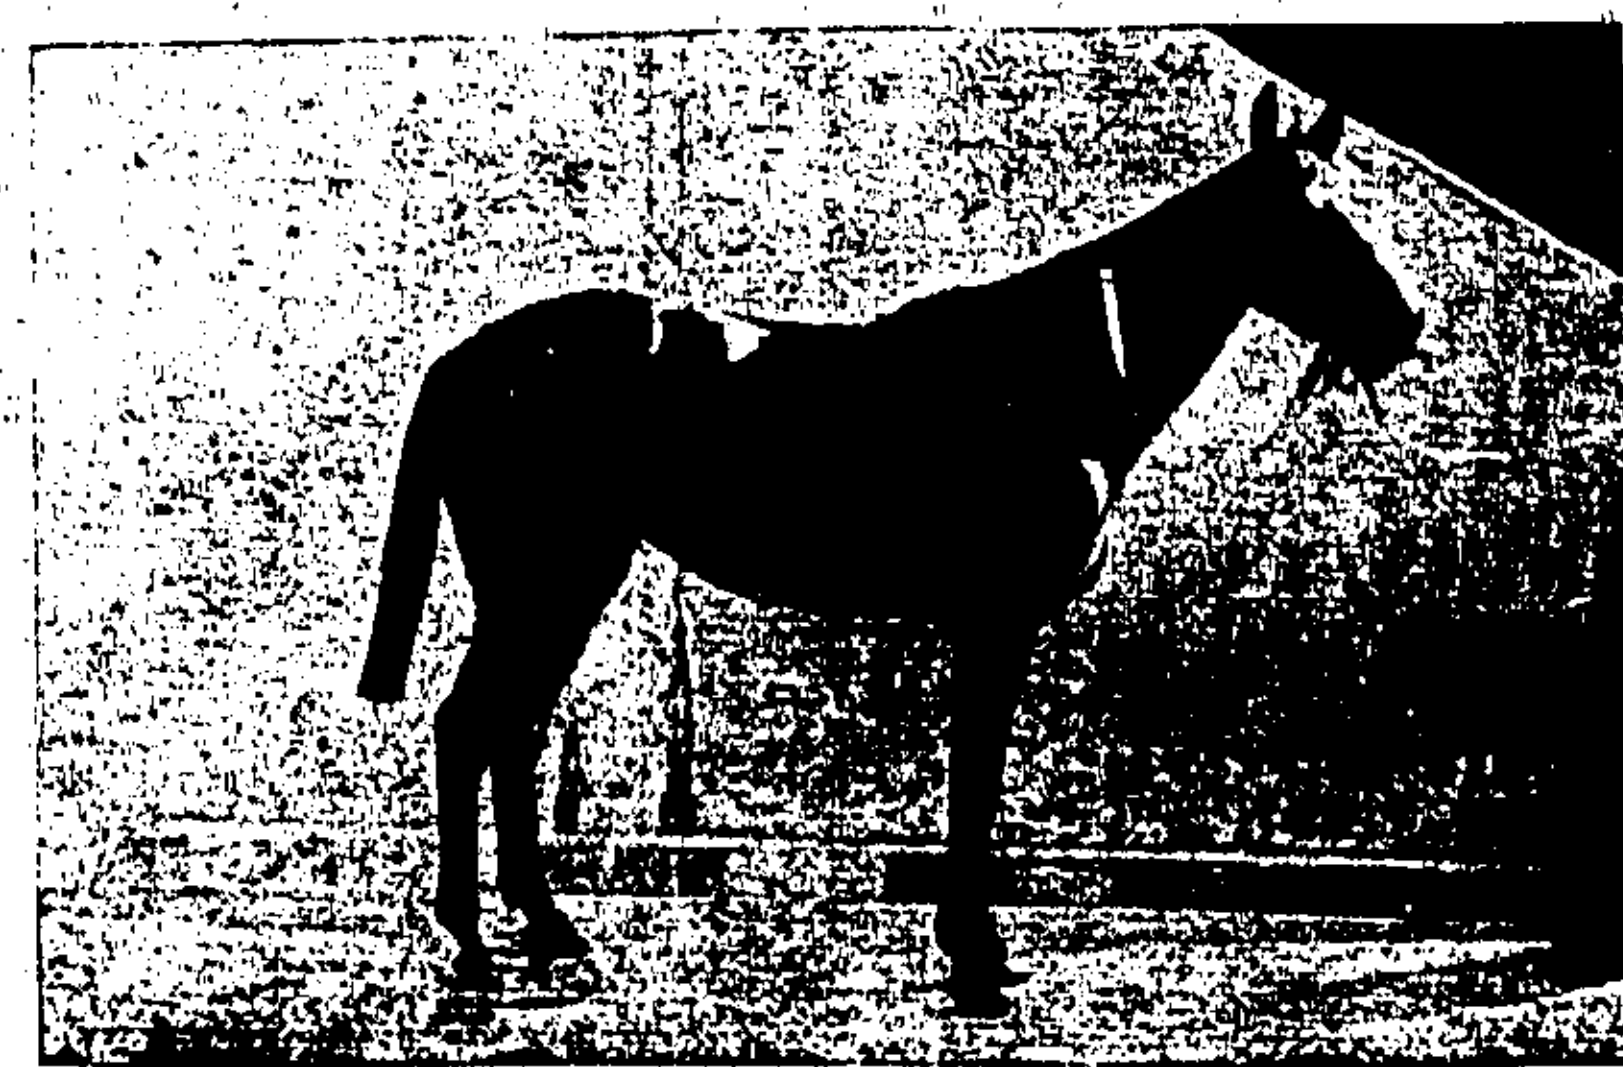

"CXMDETHAS DEWI SANT"

St. David's Day in Hong Kong was commemorated by a very pleasant reunion at the Exchange Restaurant on March 1. Many prominent members of the Welsh Community were present. More than 160 people sat down to dinner, and several delicious Welsh dishes figured on the menu. An excellent speech was made by the President, Mr. E. C. Thomas. A message of goodwill from Singapore was delivered by Mr. T. D. Hughes. The health of the guests was wittily proposed by the Vice-President, Mr. Evan Thomas, to which the Bishop of Victoria made a most clever and amusing reply. A delightful programme of music was interspersed with the speeches. Mr. D. M. Richards (a Past-President of the Society) gave some charming Welsh songs in his native tongue and his mellow voice and delightful interpretations gave much pleasure and were warmly cheered. Miss Iris Phelps gave a brilliant piano solo and her Father Mr. W. I. Phelps contributed some songs, while some quaint and tuneful part songs were splendidly sung by the Male-Voice Choir of the S.W.B.

SOME OF THE DRESSES

The official party was as follows: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Thomas, Sir William Hornell, Mr. Shields, Dr. and Mrs. Moore, Rt. Rev. Bishop of Victoria, and Mrs. Owen Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Evan Thomas, Mrs. Powell and Colonel and Mrs. Raikes. Dancing commenced at ten o'clock and continued until midnight. Mrs. E. V. Hooper in her capacity of "Vigilant" (which being translated means Secretary) was very busy all evening and looked extremely nice in panna-violet. Mrs. E. C. Thomas chose a lovely shade of apple-green taffeta, and Mrs. Evan Thomas looked delightful in flowered georgette of autumn-brown and yellow. Mrs. D. M. Richards looked most charming in black lace with a coat of taffeta caught at the shoulder by a deep pink rose, and was with a party which included Miss Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Womack and Commander Roe.

Another large party came with Mr. R. R. Davies and we noticed Mrs. de Ville looking quite lovely in maize-colour with slippers of scarlet and a spray of scarlet flowers. Miss Rogers was most attractive in apricot taffeta and I loved Mrs. Moore's little white embroidered coat with high fur collar. Mrs. Raikes wore soft white satin and Mrs. Mackichen looked very slim all in black.

H.E. The Governor's Nell Gwyn.

small Richard both seemed to be enjoying themselves.

Mrs. Eric Mitchell was extremely smart with a black cape and hat and scarf of white, and had a youngster in tow. Mrs. Drummond's little daughter celebrated her first race meeting by a good win. Mr. Drummond is just "taking over" from Mr. Cameron and will move into 382. The Peak as soon as the decorators have finished. Little Malcolm Valentine was most absorbed watching some of the last races, and got well up on the top rail. Miss Stilwell looked very youthful and sweet in a lime green coat and skirt. Miss Heather Gerard was busy backing her fancy on more than one occasion, and Miss Joan Dowling seemed to be having a great time, and could be seen on many occasions with whole packets of tickets. (were they all winners, I wonder).

RED POPULAR

Mrs. Sismore wore royal blue and Mrs. A. H. Compton looked dazlingly lovely in magpie black and white—but on the whole red and busy all afternoon entertaining a great number of people in her box.

Mrs. Holmes has been placing bets steadily all through the meeting and we have an idea that she is well up.

Mrs. Harriman was very dainty and petite in black with a striped black and white stock and we caught a glimpse of Mrs. Prisma, who is so like her sister when they are apart (not of course when one sees them together) who looked most delightful in a long coat of wedge-wood-blue with a fascinating border.

PLEASANT MEMORIES

There was a great deal of applause when H. E. The Governor led in Nell Gwyn after a most exciting race.

The prediction that the new ponies are far better than last year's batch seemed to be proved when Woodland Stag failed so dismally in the seventh race. Some of us, who were standing by to put our money on Solar Star, were terribly disappointed in the unfortunate accident which prevented that pony running. It was quite too bad,

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Mr. J. F. Owen, a Director of Messrs. Jardine Engineering Corporation, accompanied by Mrs. Owen, is among the most recent arrivals at the Repulse Bay Hotel.

At the next meeting of the Rotary Club to be held on Tuesday, March 6, the speaker will be Mr. K. B. Vaidya, B. Com., and his subject "Misconceptions about India".

Five cases of cerebro-spinal fever, one each of small pox, diphtheria and enteric fever respectively, were reported for the 24 hours ended on March 2.

A fine of $250 was on Saturday morning imposed on Li Li-tai, a Chinese soldier, by Mr. S. Balfour at the Central Magistracy, when he was convicted on a charge of possession of a Mauser automatic pistol and 810 rounds of ammunition.

The Hong Kong University Arts Association will hold a debate with the Medicals in the Union Assembly Room on Monday, 5th of March, 1934, at 8.30 p.m. The subject is that "Co-education" is a success in this University.

A European lady resident of the Peninsula Hotel, Kowloon, has reported the loss of a string of pearls valued at about $300. The string, comprising 103 pearls were either misplaced or have been stolen from her room, No. 410, states the police report.

Over 250 members of the Chinese Y.M.C.A., and their friends were present at a dinner given at the China Emporium Cafe de Luxe on Saturday night, when the President Mr. Lam Chi-fung, formally launched the 25th annual Membership and Financial Campaign.

H.M.S. Robin, a river-gunboat, which was brought out to the Colony in parts on the s.s. Hector some months ago, and assembled at the Taikoo Dockyard, will be officially launched on Wednesday, at noon, when Mrs. Elliott, wife of Commander Frank Elliott, O.B.E., will christen the vessel.

Mr. A.E. Kinsey, of the N.Y.K. Staff, accompanied by Mrs. Kinsey, Mr. E.L. Beville, Councillor of the United States Embassy at Yokohama, accompanied by Mrs. Beville and their two sons, were among the passengers who arrived in the Colony on Saturday, by the s.s. Asama Maru.

RUMANIA AND THE LITTLE ENTENTE

Titulescu's Influence Waning

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Bucharest, March 4. That Rumania is inclined to withdraw from the Little Entente is the allegation of the Bucharest correspondent of the Catholic paper, "Memorandum," who adds that Rumania, as distinct from France, has not become nervous on account of the negotiations between Italy, Austria and Hungary, but is calmly awaiting developments.

The correspondent says that he is informed that Rumania would rather withdraw from the Little Entente.

It is pointed out in Rumanian circles that Czechoslovakia hitherto derived her chief profit from the Little Entente by selling her industrial products to the markets of the other two states.

A "wheeling round" of Rumania is to be expected soon, says the correspondent, since M. Titulescu's influence is gradually waning.—Transocean Kuo Min.

A GALLANT NURSE

Prevented A Serious Catastrophe

London, Mar. 3. The gallantry of the Middlesex Hospital nurse, Sister Dorothy Thomas, has been rewarded by the award of a medal of the Order of the British Empire in the Civil Division.

While a large oxygen cylinder was being charged in the Anaesthetic Room, an explosion occurred and the oxygen caught fire, flames shooting out of the room in an alarming manner.

Sister Thomas, after removing the ether and shutting the doors to localise the fire, re-entered the Anaesthetic Room and at great risk turned off the top of the burning cylinder which was liable to have exploded at any moment. Her bravery and coolness prevented a serious catastrophe.—British Wireless.

MARYSE HILTZ

Forced Back By Storm

Shanghai, Mar. 3. The French airwoman, Mlle. Maryse Hiltz, has delayed her departure in order to make a slight-seeing trip round Shanghai today.

She will resume her flight to Tokyo tomorrow, leaving at 7 o'clock in the morning for Seoul.—Reuter.

Shanghai, Mar. 4. Mlle. Hiltz hopped off at 8.25 this morning for Seoul.—Reuter.

Tsingtao, Mar. 4. Mlle. Hiltz ran into stormy weather 125 miles northward of Tsingtao, and was compelled to turn back.

She landed here at 1 p.m. and intends to resume her flight at 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Mlle. Hiltz is spending the night at the French Consulate.—Reuter.

DR. WYNEKOOP'S TRIAL

Repudiation of Confession Causes A Sensation

Chicago, Mar. 2. Dr. Wynekoop's repudiation of her "confession" of the murder of her daughter-in-law, Rheta, declaring that she made it because of a "police assurance" that this would effect the release of her son, Earle, provided another court sensation, in her trial, now reaching the closing stages.—Reuter.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE MUSSOLINI

Allegation Against Four Accused

Rome, March 3. An allegation of an attempt to assassinate Signor Mussolini has been made in connection with the trial which opened on March 15, before the special tribunal of Defence of the State, of four men, Renato Cianca, his son Claudio Cianca, Leone Buccelloni and Pasquale Capasso.

The four men are charged with exploding a bomb in the portico of St. Peter's Church on June 26, 1932, during Mass.

It is alleged that when arrested they were preparing a poison gas bomb with which they intended to attempt the killing of Premier Mussolini.

It is asserted that the accused were in the pay of well-known Italian anti-Fascists in Paris and London.

It is expected that the first three will be sentenced to death by shooting, while the fourth will be given twenty years' penal servitude.—Reuter.

NEW SPANISH CABINET

To Be Formed On Radical Basis

Madrid, Mar. 3. Don Alejandro Lerroux, the Spanish Premier, who resigned on March 1, after a fortnight in office, has agreed to form a new Ministry on a Radical basis, seeking the co-operation of the Agrarian leader, Senor de Valasco.—Reuter.

ONLY A FEW MINOR CHANGES

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Madrid, Mar. 3. Lerroux's reorganised cabinet which received the sanction of President Zamora on Saturday differed from the preceding one only by a few minor changes and is considered in political circles to show hardly any visible swing towards the Right.

The Home Office relinquished by Barrios has been taken up by the Liberal Alonzo. Von de Lara is replaced by Von Marraco at the Finance Ministry, while the brilliant Agrarian, Republican Salvador Madarago takes over education from Ysmaes. All other members of the last cabinet retain their portfolios.—Transocean Kuo Min.

CATHOLIC LEADER'S THREAT

Madrid, March 4. Fears that the new Cabinet will be short-lived unless the social troubles throughout the country force the Right parties to co-operate are confirmed by a threat by the Catholic leader Gilrobes; to throw out the Government soon if any Bill is opposed to the demands of the Catholics.

A general strike is feared on Monday.—Reuter.

INDUSTRIES FAIR

More Business This Year

London, Mar. 3. The British Industries Fair ended last night after a successful run of manufacturers for a fortnight which served to encourage a run of nearly a fortnight in considerably brighter trade during the coming year.

At both the London section and in the heavy industries section at Birmingham substantial orders were taken for the home market as well as for abroad. Foreign business is considered to have been remarkably good in view of currency and trade restrictions in so many countries.

A statement issued by the Federation of British Industries says: "The feeling expressed by its members who exhibited at the Fair is one of satisfaction. This applies to both enquiries received and business actually done. There is a decidedly more optimistic spirit of outlook than there was last year, but although there have been many orders placed it is not possible to say in what proportion they have been divided between home and foreign buyers."

The Federation adds that the interest displayed in British goods by foreign countries has undoubtedly increased this year, but it points out that various restrictions are making interchange of goods increasingly difficult.

The Chairman of the Management Committee of the Birmingham section reports that a number of visitors increased this year by several thousands and business substantially advanced, many exhibitors already expressing a desire to book space for next year's Fair.

The Prince of Wales sent a message to the Birmingham section saying how much he was impressed with all he saw during his visit to it.

In Birmingham the total attendance this year was 124,507 compared with 112,628 last year. Apart from business actually done the exhibitors are particularly satisfied with fresh openings for business in both home and export markets provided by contacts made during the Fair.—British Wireless.

THREE-POWER PARLEY

Visit To Italy

Rome, Mar. 3. The Austrian Chancellor, Dr. Dollfuss, and the Hungarian Premier, General Gamboes, will officially visit the Italian Government from March 14 to March 16, to discuss Signor Mussolini's plan for the economic restoration of the Danubian States.

The Government has approved the Italian-Dutch trade agreement under which Italy will buy some Dutch coal and facilitate the Dutch export of pedigree cattle, seed potatoes, and a certain amount of Colonial produce, while Holland removes the restrictions on the import of a number of Italian industrial products and promises that the Dutch market will give favourable treatment to Italian agricultural products for example, lemons, rice and peaches.—Reuter.

MEETING HAILED BY PRESS

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Rome, Mar. 3. The forthcoming meeting between Signor Mussolini, Dr. Dollfuss and Dr. Gamboes which is fixed for March 14, is hailed by the entire Italian Press, which, in enthusiastic articles of welcome, even go to the length of speaking of an impending new Entente between the three countries.

The semi-official newspaper "Giornale D'Italia" which refers to the "official meeting of three government heads", waves aside the unfriendly comments in other papers of the Little Entente.—Transocean Kuo Min.

ASSAULT BY FASCISTS

Charges Denied At Westminster

London, March 3. Emphatic denials that the British Fascists used castor oil punitive, were made by witnesses for the defence in the Fascist assault case which opened at Westminster Police Court, last Saturday.

The counsel for the defence declared that Symes and Sharrman, two of the defendants, did not touch Richardson, the plaintiff, while Mills, the third defendant, hit him in self-defence. Counsel spiritedly asserted that the three men were charged with assault. The question of whether they wore black shirts had no more to do with the case than whether Bishops wear uniform.

The case was adjourned.—Reuter.

BRITISH STOCK MARKETS

London, Mar. 3. Despite the end of the account, stock markets continued strong. British Government stocks were particularly firm with warloan at a fresh high record of 103. 11/16, while consols 2 1/2 per cent reached 81.

Home rails and many home industrial also showed renewed strength on a general improvement in outlook. French bonds improved and Germans were steady. Gold was 3/4 higher at 136/10 1/4, silver spot 20, forward 20 9/16.—British Wireless.

SILVER PLAN IN AMERICA

New Draft Bill Prepared

Washington, March 3.

The House of Representatives members, Messrs. Murdock, Felsing and Dies, have drafted a silver Bill to be introduced into the House on Monday. It provides for a Treasury purchase of 1,500,000 ounces of silver, against which money would be issued.

Although the metal would be purchased in the open market, at the prevailing price, the Bill proposes a 15 per cent. premium for silver shipped to the United States in payment of farm products.

Mr. Murdock said that Senator Wheeler favoured the plan.—Reuter.

GERMAN SHARE MARKET

Change In Tone

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, March 3. The profit taking that depressed prices on the sharemarket, the market became buoyant and as a result of brisk buying on Friday ceased on Saturday. This renewal of enterprise was largely inspired by the signing of the German-Danish treaty and further news about the German-Polish agreement.

Motors and dyetrusts were bought readily. Fixed interest securities were almost entirely neglected but prices held well. Call money 4 1/2 to 4 3/4. Young Loan declined 1/8 to 98 1/2. Reichsbanks rose 1 to 170. Dyetrust dropped 1 to 133 1/2. Salzdorf Potash slumped 2 to 153. German Steel Trust unchanged 43 1/2. German mineral oils rose 1 1/2 to 110 1/2. Siemens-Halske 1/2 lower to 150 1/2. Daimler-Benz Motors advances 1 1/2 to 51 1/2. Except for the momentary check on Friday due to profit taking, share prices continued rising steadily all through the week chiefly because of various factors proving an all round improvement in the general economic outlook. The fixed interest security market was dull the whole week, the investing public was hoping more for increase in capital by rising prices of shares.

GERMAN VIEWS ON CHINA

Country's Flight Analysed

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, March 3.

Mr. Wang Ching Wei's important declarations concerning China's economic reconstruction are featured by the entire German press. "Strewe" commenting on the declarations in the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung says that it is probably not a mere accident that they coincided with Pu Yi's coronation. There can be no question that the violent separation of a country so rich in raw materials and so well adapted for settlement—a country equally important from the point of view of exports and imports has seriously damaged China's economy. China's financial position, her trade and balance payments, have all been adversely affected thereby.

The conquest of Manchuria also indirectly produced harmful effects for China. It has furthered the spread of communism while internal disorders have been increased by the decrease of the Central Government's authority. There is no denying the fact that China's political and economic consolidation had made favourable progress before the opening of the Manchurian campaign. Insofar as it had not been hindered by the world wide economic depression and by visitations of nature. But all that the world did for China was a moral verdict by the League of Nations which had been without any practical value.

International finance failed to come to China's aid, and assumed a curious attitude to which the American banker, Lamont, one of Pierpont Morgan's partners, gave expression when he declared before the Amsterdam conference at the International Chamber of Commerce "not a single dollar for the Chinese Government so long as she does not put her house in order." This statement which confused cause and effect is somewhat surprising coming from a financier of Lamont's standing. China's house is not in order because China is unable to obtain money on the international market.

Looking back on the activities of international finance in China during the last 100 years, one is forced to come to the conclusion that international finance is responsible to a large degree for China's present economic plight.—Transocean Kuo Min.

The Supreme Council of National Defence will according to press reports examine the following possible solution for disarmament prior to the despatch of the French reply to the British proposals:

First, retention by Germany of present armament status in conformity with the Treaty of Versailles and disarmament of other powers conditional on certain guarantees.

Second, conclusion of a treaty according to which the armaments of other powers shall remain at the present level while Germany will be allowed to re-arm up to a specified limit under international control.

Third, complete freedom of action for all countries.

Informed quarters believe that the Council will find considerable difficulty in reaching a decision since all the possible solutions present advantages as well as disadvantages from the French standpoint.—Transocean Kuo Min.

IMPROVING THE NATION

Germany's Plan

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, Mar. 3.

Two thousand children will in future be sponsored by the city of Berlin with a view to furthering the Government policy of increasing the hereditary biological value of the German nation, by systematic nurture of its eugenic elements.

Sponsorship will only be extended to the third and subsequent children of necessitous families who have been conceived after Hitler's next birthday on April 20 and will assume the form of a monthly maintenance allowance of 30 marks for the first year and 20 marks for thirteen following years.

It is hoped that other cities will follow the Capital's scheme and will effectively contribute to stimulate the fertility of the eugenic elements.—Transocean Kuo Min.

DISARMAMENT VIEWS OF THE NATIONS

American Agreement

Washington, Mar. 3.

The United States Government is in complete accord with the British view on Disarmament, according to records of the conversation between Mr. Phillips, Under-Secretary of State, and the British Ambassador.

Mr. Phillips informed Sir Ronald Lindsay that the United States sympathises with the British suggestions and hopes that the successful resumption of general Disarmament discussions may be affected thereby.

Mr. Phillips said that President Roosevelt emphasised that the United States has an "interest" in the success of the world disarmament plans and would accord every possible assistance to other nations striving for a workable formula.

The American delegate to the Disarmament Conference, Mr. Norman Davis, is now in Europe on private business, and will not officially discuss disarmament with any foreign Government.

Mr. Davis, however, expects to confer with Captain Eden, informally, and also with other European experts.—Reuter.

A BLUNT HINT FROM GERMANY

Berlin, Mar. 4.

A blunt hint that it is useless for Britain to make any further efforts for mediation in the disarmament issue is contained in a statement from an official source. "Germany's demand for security and equality cannot be fulfilled chiefly owing to the opposition of France. Any further mediation from whatever side can only be directed to Paris because there are difficulties which lie in the path of an agreement.—Reuter.

FRENCH PROPOSALS

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Paris, March 3.

The Supreme Council of National Defence will according to press reports examine the following possible solution for disarmament prior to the despatch of the French reply to the British proposals:

First, retention by Germany of present armament status in conformity with the Treaty of Versailles and disarmament of other powers conditional on certain guarantees.

Second, conclusion of a treaty according to which the armaments of other powers shall remain at the present level while Germany will be allowed to re-arm up to a specified limit under international control.

Third, complete freedom of action for all countries.

Informed quarters believe that the Council will find considerable difficulty in reaching a decision since all the possible solutions present advantages as well as disadvantages from the French standpoint.—Transocean Kuo Min.

CRITICISM FROM FRANCE

Paris, March 3. France criticises the British Disarmament plan owing to the absence of a trial period in the plan which would lead to the Disarmament of France and the re-armament of Germany.

In the first year, Germany would be superior to France in artillery and tanks. Moreover, there would be no guarantee provided by the sanctions, since the consultation provided would prove insufficient.

The above is the gist of the reply to a questionnaire, made by the French Foreign Minister, M. Barthou, in the Chamber of Deputies, before the Foreign Affairs Committee.—Reuter.

CAPT. EDEN'S TOUR

London, March 2. Lord Privy Seal Anthony Eden who returned last night from his tour of the principal European Capitals, was in consultation with the Prime Minister, Mr. Stanley Baldwin and the Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, to-day.

The purpose of his visits to Paris, Berlin and Rome was to explain the British memorandum on Disarmament and to learn the attitude of France, Germany and Italy towards it. The French Government have not yet expressed their views and the memorandum is still under examination. Their attitude will be disclosed in a note which, according to Paris reports will be received in London next week.

This together with reports presented by Capt. Eden will receive the earnest attention of the British Government who will consider without delay what they can best do to arrive at a solution of this question in the interests of world peace and of the safety and interests of Great Britain.—British Wireless.

Stabilisation Fund Intact

Washington, March 3.

The American exchange stabilisation fund has not yet been used according to a Treasury official, who has disclosed that the Government has purchased over U.S. $300,000,000 worth of foreign gold without resorting to the fund.

The increment resulting from the reduction in the weight of gold in the dollar is also untouched.

A Treasury statement shows that the receipts for the fiscal year, on February 28, was $1,886,000,000 and expenditure, $4,238,000,000 while the gold assets amounted to $7,401,000,000.—Reuter.

Confidence

is not permanently attained by flaring advertisements which unscrupulously promise more than they can keep, but can only be achieved through the quality of a product. Do not listen to persuasive words to buy preparations from an obscure origin. Do not forget that your health is endangered. Place full confidence in a product which has been found very useful for more than 50 years.

Indians Win Junior Shield
FOR FIFTH TIME IN HISTORY
OF CLUBPereira's Excellent Bowling
Against C.S.C.C.

By defeating the Civil Service C.C. on Saturday, the Indian Recreation Club junior eleven, under the Captaincy of K. Nazarin, have recaptured the shield they lost last year to Craigenower. They have obtained 28 points out of a possible 33, and a fitting climax to their achievement was the dismissal of Civil Service for the record low total of 18 runs.

The Indians senior eleven were also in great form, beating the Civil Service by 66 runs. A feature of this match was the remarkable bowling of F. D. Pereira, the Colony's best bowler, who captured 7 wickets for 12 runs.

In the other Senior game, the University, last year's champions, were again beaten, this time falling victims to the Army by four wickets.

The H.K.C.C. junior eleven, who at one time were serious contenders for the shield, defeated a depleted Navy side by 39 runs.

PRESIDENT OPPOSED

Request For Trade Powers

Washington, March 2.
A Bill embodying negotiating authority for which President Roosevelt asked Congress, has been introduced into the House of Representatives, and provides, according to democratic leaders, a complete and permanent tariff policy for the United States.
It repeals the flexible provision of the 1930 Tariff Act, stipulating that any agreement negotiated shall be terminable within three years, but may be extended indefinitely.—Reuter.

Washington, March 3.
The Tariff Bill provides to authorize President Roosevelt to increase or reduce within 50 per cent. of the existing import duties but does not authorize changes in the free list.—Reuter.

A PROTRACTED BATTLE

New York, March 2.
A bitter protracted battle over President Roosevelt's request for powers to negotiate trade agreements and alter tariffs, is forecast by Washington correspondents.
Although President Roosevelt has emphasized that he is only asking for powers for three years,
even the Democratic supporters have voiced doubts about the scheme.
Senator Walsh asserts that the bestowal of such powers is unthinkable, except as an emergency measure, while Senator Borah has issued a warning that the tariff dictatorship would be permanent unless Congress summoned the courage to repeal it.—Reuter.

SHIP SUNK IN WHANGPOO

Passengers and Crew Saved

Shanghai, Mar. 4.
The Chinese coasting steamer Shaoxing went to the bottom of the Whangpoo River this morning following a collision with another small vessel, the Wanhsiang.
The collision occurred when the Shaoxing was seventy feet from the wharf and just steaming out for coastal ports with a cargo of rice and sundries.
The Shaoxing sank in thirty minutes. Scores of sampans and junks rescued the passengers and crew. Fortunately there were no casualties.
In the collision the Wanhsiang fared rather badly and must enter dry dock for repairs.—Reuter.

CHARGE OF SABOTAGE

of sabotage against the Army aéroplanes, which have been carrying the American air mail since the suspension, last month, of all pri-

AMERICANS' EXPLOIT

Interviews Latest "Monster"

London, March 3.
Since the Loch Ness monster disappeared from its winter quarters, popular public interest centres on the reappearance of Westminster Abbey's only ghost,
after two years' absence.
The phantom is a tall, lean cowed monk who was murdered
by robbers in the reign of Henry the Eighth.
Officials of the Abbey state that the apparition patrols the Cloisters between 5 o'clock in the afternoon and midnight, and has an unconfirmed trick of vanishing without warning.
He habitually walks two inches
above the floor due to the sinking of the pavement since his life time.
Two American tourists claim to have interviewed him and to have obtained details of his demise from his own lips.—Reuter.

PARIS "MONSTER" PROVES A DISAPPOINTMENT.

[Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright.)]
Paris, Mar. 3.
The carcass of a mysterious monster which was washed up on the beach at Cherbourg some days ago turned out to be that of a rare variety of whale. This at least is the finding of three zoological experts who had been called in by the fishermen of Cherbourg to give their expert opinion.
Villagers who had hoped that their "monster" might become as famous as that of Lochness and prove a boon to the local tourist trade are thus doomed to disappointment.—Transocean Kuo Min.

HIGH TREASON CHARGES

Prominent Men Arrested

Vienna, March 3.
Three prominent members of the former Austrian Social-Democratic Party are to appear before the Vienna District Civil Court, on charges of high treason.
They are: Herr Karl Seltz, Vienna's famous Burgomaster and President of the 1918 provisional Government which conducted the peace negotiations, Herr Karl Renner, Chancellor of the 1918
Government, and Herr Albert
Sever, a former local Governor of Lower Austria.—Reuter.

the disclosure of alleged graft in the allotment of the contracts.
It is alleged that the sabotage involved punctured petrol tanks, tampered controls and water in the petrol.—Reuter.

War, Mr. George H. Dern, scouts
the Army aeroplane sabotage reports as fantastic.—Reuter.

Continental News In Brief

GERMAN SHAREMARKET

Berlin, March 1.
Although business in the share-
market opened with brisk prices
the tendency was downwards
because most dealers considered that the moment had arrived for taking the profits accumulated after such a long period of rising prices. Business on fixed interest security market likewise small only industrial bonds being in demand. Call Money 4 3/8 to 5.
Young Loan advanced 1/4 to 94.
Reichsbank declined 1 to 169.
Dyestuffs down 7/8 to 134 1/8.
Salzetturth Potash dropped 2 to 153. German Steel Trusts slumped
1 to 431. German Mineral Oils declined 2 5/8 to 109. Siemen-shalske improved 1/4 to 1504.—Trans-

HAPSBURG MONARCHY

Paris, March 2.
Recent rumours about the impending restoration of the Haps-burgs were somewhat discounted
on Friday by the publication in Le Jour of an interview with Baron Von Weisner, a close friend of the Archduke Otto. The spokesman of the exiled pretender to the Austro-Hungarian throne declared that any Hapsburg restoration would be undertaken "by entirely legitimate methods" and under no circumstances by a coup d'Etat.
The monarchist leader further emphasized that Otto's followers were only aiming at restoring the Hapsburgs to the Austrian throne which could be accomplished without violating any of the existing treaties.—Transocean

BRITISH AID FOR GERMANY

Berlin, March 2.
A deputation of the British Colony in Berlin presented Reichspropaganda Minister Goebbels a check amounting to Reichsmark 2025.00 which money was collected during a Theatre performance recently held by the British Colony
in Berlin in aid of the German Winter Relief Work. Dr. Goebbels heartily thanked the Trade Commissioner of the British Legation for this contribution.—Transocean

SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Rome, March 2.
Savings Deposit in Italian Post Office Saving Department at the end of 1933 reached 18,675 millions of Liras against 17,020 millions at the end of 1932, showing an increase of 1,655 millions. Deposit in Savings Banks have reached the figures of 20,629 millions of Liras against 18,743 millions at the end of 1932, showing an increase of 1,886 millions.—Transocean Kuo

"THE ARYAN CLAUSE"

Hamburg, March 2.
A test case concerning the right to apply the so-called "Aryan clause" was settled in the Hamburg courts on Friday. A lawyer whose practice had been forbidden
because he was of Jewish origin appealed against the decision last June prohibiting Jews from acting as lawyers claiming that it was contrary to the provisions of the Weimar constitution. The special Court upheld the constitutionality measure excluding the Plaintiff from exercising his profession declaring that the decision was necessary "for reasons of State."
The Court further ruled that the question of the validity of the Weimar constitution was not accepted by the plea, the decision about which was resting on "other considerations".—Transocean Kuo

REICHSBANK RETURNS

Berlin, March 2.
The Reichsbank return for the period ending February 28 brought an agreeable change for the better inasmuch as the gold stock instead of showing a substantial decline as in the last four weekly reports, has greatly increased owing to the fact that large sums due to Germany by Soviet Russia have been paid in gold. That despite this, the note cover stood at 94.7 per cent. as against 9.9 on February 23, 10.4 on February 13 is explained by the heavy drain on the Reichsbank resources levied by the last transfer agreement made with the long-term creditors which however may be revised in April. The gold stock alone increased 21.1 million marks to 333.5 millions. The whole of the foreign currency reserve declined 1.2 millions to 6.7 millions making the total increase of cover 19.9 millions to 340.2 millions. Note circulation increased 265.5 millions to 3494.1 millions. Amount of credit issued as indicated by bills, cheques, advances and investments increased by 302.1 million marks to 5349.3 million Reichs marks.—

GERMAN-POLISH RELATIONS

Berlin, March 2.
Particulars of an important treaty regulating the economic relationship between Germany and Denmark was signed at Copenhagen on Thursday, March 1.
and made known in Berlin on Friday night. Need for the agreement arose partly from the new agrarian policy adopted by Germany beginning this year regulating the trade of butter, cheese and eggs, and partly because of the signing of a trade treaty with Holland at the end of last year giving effect to Germany's agrarian policy. But the Danish-German negotiations soon led to discussions on a far wider basis largely because of complications arising from German depreciated currency. Both sides made far reaching concessions which will guarantee the exchange of an increased volume of merchandise between both countries.
The treaty lasts till the end of 1934
and in principle follows the provisions of the agreement now existing between Germany and Holland.

THE "GERMAN FRONT"

Saarbrücken, March 2.
State Councillor Sannol published on Friday a proclamation to all Germans of the Saar territory and members of the National-Socialist Party and recording the historical nature for the act of formation of the "German Front".—Transocean Kuo Min.

GERMAN SENTIMENT

Berlin, March 2.
Cities, towns and municipalities in Germany are instructed to cease altering the old historic names of streets, squares and roads. Each generation, declares Hitler, has its own great men the memory of whose names should be kept fresh.—Transocean Kuo Min.

DEVOTIONAL WORK

Berlin, March 2.
Agreement has just been reached between the Reichsbishop of the Evangelical church and the Leader of the German youth that Monday and Friday afternoon will be devoted to educational devotional work specially organised for the evangelical youth. On these days therefore youth must be relieved from duties.—Transocean Kuo Min.

THE IMPORTANCE OF ROME

Rome, March 2.
The Bishop of Portland, Oregon, interviewed by journalists on his visit to Rome declared that it is only necessary to stay a few days
in Rome to understand the importance of that city. After having praised the person and the activities of E.H. the Pope he said that Rome left his soul full of enthusiasm and that for him has been a great comfort to see the harmony in which the Italian people live to-day and the great respect and deference paid by the Italian civil authorities to the Pope and the Church. He further said that those are visible signs of the greatness of the Italian nation.—

JAPAN'S AIMS IN NORTH CHINA

A Soviet View

Moscow, March 3.
The enthronement of Mr. Pu Yi is interpreted as a move in Japanese aims according to M.
Karl Radek, who in an article in the "Izvestia" contends that the Japanese activities in Manchukuo, Jehol and M. Mongolia are in the nature of preliminary activity before the preparation of a base for future advance.
The article declares that Japanese militarism fears that if China follows the path of capitalism she must rely on the United States, while if she chooses the socialist path she must rely on the Soviet Russian Republic. Neither of those paths portends any good for those hankering after the domination of Asia.
The idea behind Pu Yi's coronation is to advance into the Yangtze region not under the slogan of annexation but under the old
"lawful" power of the Ching Dynasty behind whose back Japanese militarism will hide itself, at the same time occupying all the chief posts in China.—Reuter.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

American Needs Stressed

Washington, March 3.
The outstanding feature of his first year in office was the "amazing universal increase" in the people's interest in the Government, declared President Roosevelt in an address to the Students of the American University.
President Roosevelt said that the "new deal" is not a temporary deal but aimed at the eradicating of the deeper causes in the immediate illness and many other illnesses of the body politic.
He welcomed the fact that the school of public affairs in establishing the university promised hearty co-operation in the administration. He said that they needed "trained personnel in the Government; they needed disinterested wells of 'broad-gauged' officials. This problem can be solved without the creation of a national bureaucracy which would dominate our national life and our governmental system," the President added.—Reuter.

HITLER'S BIOGRAPHY

Rome, March 3.
Hitler's biography and "political testament," "Mein Kampf"
was published here on Saturday in the approved Italian translation.—Transocean Kuo Min.

RUSSIAN AIRMEN ARRESTED

Riga, March 3.
Two Russian military planes landed near Denisk after having circled several times over the town. The machines were damaged on landing, but the occupants, four Russian flying officers were not hurt. They were immediately arrested and conveyed to the offices of the Latvian political police where they stated they had lost their way consequent on bad weather whilst flying from Moscow to Smolensk and had been forced to land owing to lack of fuel. The machines are Russian scouting planes of the latest design.—Transocean Kuo Min.

GERMANY'S ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT

That Germany is striving as much as any other country in the world and that there are clear signs of economic improvement in Germany is the opinion of the "Spectator's" special correspondent, Powys Greenwood, and of General Fuller who recently retired from active service and has just returned from six weeks'
tour on the Continent.—Trans-
